

The proposed ruling will limit peoples right to develop and innovate communications devices using Free software which is not under the control of private companies. The use of Free software for development of radio devices should not be outlawed as this ruling implies. I strongly voice my disagreement for the proposed ruling.